Adult toys

Who said Christmas was just for kids? There are lots of great toys you'll want to keep for yourself.

Little toy, big punch

Sony's Playstation Portable (PSP) has a tiny frame of just under seven inches by three inches, featuring games, music, video playback and photo display, all on a high-resolution screen. On top of that, wireless connectivity lets users go online wherever, whenever (look out for Warner Brothers' latest interactive game: Harry Potter And The Goblet Of Fire). The perfect gift for kids – if you decide to give it to them! HK$1800

A+ A perfect antidote to the MTR

A- Expect a fight for PSP time

Monster truck

There's nothing that grown up kids like better than really big models. That's why this awesome replica truck from Revell tops our gift list in this category. The Louis Truck and Trailer comes with a mounting system – perfect for the home or office. Available at UML hobby stores in Causeway Bay and Kowloon. HK$499

A+ Hold thousands of horsepower in your hand

Body Twister

For years, kids had a blast with Twister – until their parents discovered that it's more fun for adults. The next time you have a party, break out Twister and see how long it takes before everyone is crying with laughter. As the tangle increases, so do the giggles – whether you are young or young at heart. HK$149

A+ An exciting way to kick-start a party

A- Older players may need a first aid kit close by

Blasting the opposition

Take out friends and enemies alike with the LAZER tag system. Two laser guns and headsets with life point indicators tell you when you've made a 'kill'. Hours of fun. HK$349

A Could be great fun if you are left in the office late at night!

Flight controller

Take off into the wild blue yonder with this radio controlled helicopter, Jet Helio, from Taiyo R/C. Auto stabilizers and flap wings make this bird easy to handle – but don't tell the kids. They need coaching on how to handle the helicopter properly, which means watching you play with it... After all, when it comes to toys that are actually meant for adults, this has to be one of the best. HK$500

A+ No need for lame excuses when you take this one from the kids
