

▶▶▶ People on the move

KPMG

Patrick Chu has been appointed audit partner in Beijing. He has extensive experience with listed clients and sino-foreign joint ventures in China. He was involved in several initial public offerings in Hong Kong.

In Shenzhen, Isaac Leung has been appointed partner of transaction services at the advisory division. He provides due diligence, negotiation and project management assistance to multinationals, and advises private equity firms on mergers and acquisitions in China.

In Qingdao, Vincent Pang has been appointed tax partner. He provides China tax structuring, planning and compliance services to foreign investors. He also gives tax advice to Chinese companies seeking to list in overseas capital markets.

Jessie Qian has been appointed audit partner in Beijing. She has served many U.S. listed and private companies and has experience in IPO and secondary offering projects. Qian provides services to private Chinese enterprises planning to list in the U.S. and international clients with China operations.

Mike Tse has been appointed audit partner in Shanghai. He is experienced in serving listed companies and multinationals in Hong Kong and the mainland. He has also been involved in initial stock listings on Hong Kong's main board and Growth Enterprise Market, the New York Stock Exchange and NASDAQ.

In Beijing, Charles Wan has been appointed audit partner. He has extensive experience with listed companies and state-owned enterprises, including petrochemicals, utilities, telecommunications and industrial and consumer products production companies. Wan helps local and state-owned enterprises in overseas listings and fund raising projects.

Karen Xu has been appointed audit partner in Beijing. She joined the firm's Beijing office in 1995 and has been involved in a number of overseas listings, IPOs and mergers and acquisitions. She has strong knowledge about the information, communications and entertainment sectors.

In Beijing, Jeanne Zhang has been appointed audit partner. She joined the firm's audit practice in Beijing in 1996 and is experienced in providing audit and advisory services to domestic and multinational enterprises. She has worked on IPOs in China and other overseas capital markets.

The Chartered Institute of Management Accountants

Damian Yip has been appointed divisional director. He has extensive management experience in corporations, international educational institutes and professional bodies in Hong Kong. He now manages CIMA's Hong Kong office and oversees member activities. Prior to joining the institute, Yip was the chief representative of ICAEW in Hong Kong.

Email your announcements to geraldine@eightpublishing.com. The deadline for the November issue of A Plus is 10 October 2007.