

▶▶▶ People on the move

KPMG

Banny Leung has been named audit partner for financial services in China. He has extensive experience in the financial industry and an in-depth knowledge of banking industry operations. He has led a number of audit and advisory projects in Hong Kong, China and the U.K., with clients from global and mainland financial institutions.

Reynold Liu has been named partner in risk advisory services in China. He has more than 11 years of experience in advising clients on risk management, enterprise resource planning system controls, IT audit, operations and systems development, Sarbanes-Oxley and IFRS conversion.

Belinda Kwee has been appointed audit principal in China. She provides assurance and advisory services to multinational companies with cross-border business activities, and private and listed companies in Hong Kong.

Jack Ng has joined KPMG China as an audit principal. He has over 10 years of experience in providing assurance and advisory services to Hong Kong and Canadian clients. He serves investment managers, investment funds and trustees in audits, internal control reviews and global investment performance standards verification.

Money Chow has been appointed audit principal for the consumer and industrial markets group. She serves Hong Kong, mainland and international clients from petrochemicals, electronics and the food and beverage industries.

Vivien Cheng has been with the firm since 1996 and has been appointed audit principal. She has extensive audit experience with clients in the consumer and industrial markets sector in Hong Kong and China and has assisted a number of Hong Kong and Chinese companies in raising funds locally and overseas.

Paul Chau has been appointed principal in corporate finance. He has over 12 years experience in deal-making with KPMG, focusing on deal origination and advisory, including pre-IPO financings, IPO and M&A.

David Yeung has been appointed a principal in risk advisory services in China. He joined KPMG Singapore as a computer auditor and left the firm in late 1999. He rejoined in 2007 and is now leading the firm's risk advisory services for southern China.

PricewaterhouseCoopers

Amy Yeung has been appointed partner in Hong Kong. She specializes in providing assurance and business advisory services to the banking capital markets sector and hedge funds.

Andrew Yuen has been appointed assurance services partner in Hong Kong, focusing on serving listed and multinational companies in the retail and consumer sectors.

▶▶▶ People on the move

PricewaterhouseCoopers

Cathy Ng has been appointed assurance services partner in Hong Kong involving capital market transactions, particularly on initial public offerings.

Mabel Cheung has been appointed assurance services partner in Hong Kong, specializing in quality assurance and audit reporting.

Chris Chan has been appointed advisory services partner in Hong Kong, specializing in providing due diligence services to financial and corporate investors.

Rachel Tsang has been appointed partner in Hong Kong, handling real estate, energy, transportation, engineering and services practice, with particular focus on providing assurance and due diligence services to real estate companies.

George Cheng has been appointed assurance services partner in Hong Kong, serving companies in the technology, info-communications and entertainment sectors.

Sandra Lai has been appointed Hong Kong partner, specializing in assurance and business advisory services to companies in the manufacturing, retailing and distribution sectors.

Ivan Ng has been appointed partner in Hong Kong, providing assurance and business advisory services to companies in the telecommunication, gaming, hospitality and entertainment sectors.

Cecilia Lee has been appointed tax services partner in Hong Kong. Her expertise includes cross-border inter-company transactions planning, documentation, tax dispute resolution and other advisory services.

Josephine Kwan has been appointed partner in Hong Kong, handling assurance and business advisory services for companies and funds in the investment management sector.

Jenny Tsao has been appointed tax services partner in Hong Kong. She specializes in providing Hong Kong and regional tax consultancy services, including corporate restructuring, tax-efficient holding structuring, and mergers and acquisitions to manufacturing, retail and transportation companies.

Email your announcements to cookie@eightcustommedia.com. The deadline for the October issue of A Plus is 15 September 2008.