

Music Appreciation Movie Night

The Singing Interest Group (opera) has organized its first ever Music Appreciation Movie Night. It is hoped to gather members with discerning ears to enjoy an evening of musicals together. Whether you're a music enthusiast, movie fanatic, or just curious what this is all about, you are welcome to enjoy a relaxing evening with a blockbuster hit.

Joel Schumacher's version of the famous musical, The Phantom of the Opera will be played on this occasion. Since its debut in London's West End at Her Majesty's Theatre in 1986, the enduringly popular musical has reached an estimated audience of 80 million people. It is a timeless classic love story and the original musical has won over 20 awards, including the prestigious Tony Award. For those who have never seen Phantom, it is guaranteed to be worthwhile of your time. For those music enthusiasts who have seen this movie or the original opera, you are also warmly welcome as there will be mingling and sharing session after the movie.
