About the speaker

Mr. Stewart Wong is an associate in the Corporate Department of Barlow Lyde & Gilbert. He re-located to Hong Kong after his stay in Beijing for approximately four years. Stewart advises on foreign direct investment matters involving China. He has counselled numerous multinational clients on the legal aspects of their investments and business activities in China. He has extensive experience in representing foreign interests in equity and contractual joint ventures, wholly foreign-owned enterprises, representative offices, mergers and acquisitions, due diligence investigations, and regulatory and approval matters. He has worked on projects in sectors such as transportation and logistics, gold mining, steel, advertisement, hotel, infrastructure and food and represented wholly foreign-owned enterprises in labour dispute hearings in China. He also counsels clients on labour, taxation, foreign exchange, product liability and other issues pertinent to business operations in China and offers practical solutions.

Stewart qualified as a solicitor in Hong Kong in 1995 and in England in 1997. He has an LLB, first class honours, from the City University of Hong Kong and an LLM from the Cambridge University. He speaks fluent Mandarin.
